Subject: Briefing for NAC Allied Military Committee

One of the alliance groups that will need all the information and bucking up we can give them is the North Atlantic Council and its subsidiary organs. At the request of Admiral Miller of the Joint Staff, Irwin Tobin of EUR/RPM will make available current, cleared intelligence and political material for a briefing of the NAC Allied Military Committee which meets each Friday at the Pentagon. Admiral Miller also requested information regarding how we evaluate the situation and our forward political planning to the extent that we can reveal it. I suggested that a way to meet this requirement which might pay high dividends would be to ask Ed Martin to give the Committee a twenty minute rundown of the essential factors in the situation, our continuing objectives and some sense of the tactical interplay. Ed agreed to do this and will give a short presentation at tomorrow's meeting to thirteen allied representatives and their staffs totaling about 75 persons.
